RELEASE

"Organization") acknowledges that its employees are visitors to the Princeton Institute for the Science and Technology of Materials ("PRISM") located at Princeton University, Princeton NJ ("University") and Organization desires for its employees to participate in the Imaging and Analysis Center ("IAC") and Micro/Nanofabrication Laboratory ("MNFL") activities including using one or both of the facilities and equipment ("Activity").

Organization acknowledges and agrees that the University is extending to it and its employees the privilege of participating in the Activity in furtherance of its charitable, educational mission and that Organization is therefore a beneficiary of its charitable works, as contemplated by the New Jersey Charitable Immunity Act, N.J.SA 2A:53A-7. Organization acknowledges and agrees while its employees are at any location of the University in connection with the Activity, its employees are required to comply with the University’s Rights, Rules and Responsibilities, which can be found at http://www.princeton.edu/pub/rrr/index.xml, and Organization further acknowledges that there are risks and hazards directly or inherently involved, making this an Activity with the potential to cause injury and/or loss of limb or life.

In consideration of the University allowing Organization’s employees to participate and with full knowledge of the facts and circumstances surrounding the Activity, Organization voluntarily undertakes the Activity and releases the University from all responsibility and risk arising from its employees’ participation, including all risk of loss of limb or life, property damage, injury to others, and other hazards to its employees. Organization agrees to defend, indemnify and hold the University, its trustees, officers, employees and agents harmless from and against any and all claims, demands or judgments (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) arising out of its employees’ participation in the Activity.

Agreement Prevails
This agreement shall prevail in the event of any conflicting terms that may appear in any other agreement between Organization and the University with respect to the Activity.
